

Sunday, August 25, 2013 AGENDA Peace Through Law: The Development of an Ideal

8:30 - 9:00 Registration/Coffee

9:10 - 9:30 Welcome/Opening Remarks

9:30 - 10:00 Keynote: "Putting International Law on the Side of Peace: The Legacy of Nuremberg"
Don Ferencz (Global Institute for the Prevention of Aggression)

10:00 - 10:30 Keynote: "The Permanent Court of Arbitration & The Peaceful Settlement of Disputes"
Brooks Daly (The Permanent Court of Arbitration)

10:30 - 10:45 Break

10:45 - 11:15 Keynote: "Peace Through Law in Darfur"
Jennifer Schense (International Criminal Court)

11:15 - 11:45 Keynote: "The Kampala Amendment on the Crime of Aggression: The Agreement and the Way Forward"
Jennifer Trahan (New York University)

11:45 - 13:00 Lunch

13:00-14:30 PANEL 1

The Individual and the State: What Does John Rawls's The Law of Peoples Tell Us About the Development of International Criminal Law?
Nikila Kaushik (University of Sydney, Australia)

The Development of Command Responsibility in International Criminal Law - From Nuremberg to the UN Tribunals and the International Criminal Court
Ebba Lekvall (University of Oxford, U.K.)

Peace through Corporate War Crime: From Ideal to Reality
Xiaohong Wei (Erasmus University/Remnin University, China)

2:30 - 3:00 Keynote: "The Power of Truth: From Gandhi to Article 54 of the Rome Statute"
Xabier Agirre (International Criminal Court)

3:00 - 3:30 Break

3:30 - 5:00 PANEL 2

Gender Mainstreaming Nearing 30 Years: What Have We Achieved, Where Must We Go?
Julie Mouris (University of Ottawa/Carleton University, Canada)

The Significance of Rape as a War Crime at the International Level
Caterine Arrabal Ward (Glasgow Caledonian University, Scotland)

Women as Perpetrators of Mass-Atrocities
Mihaela Ivan-Cucu (University of Nottingham, UK)

The good work cannot go back, it must advance, it must be accomplished
~Victor Hugo

Generously Supported by Central Michigan University's Department of Philosophy & Religion and College of Humanities & Social & Behavioral Sciences and The Planethood Foundation. With special thanks to The ICCSN Chapters of Cambridge University and Central Michigan University

Monday, August 26

- 8:30-8:45 Registration/Coffee
- 8:45-10:15 Pray the Devil Back to Hell (Film)
(Film about Leymah Gbowee, Keynote Speaker of the Conference)
- 10:15-10:45 Keynote: "Feminist Pragmatism: Jane Addams' Theory and Her Approach to Nonviolence, Peace and Crime"
Mary Jo Deegan (University of Nebraska)
- 10:45-11:00 Break
- 11:00-12:15 PANEL 3

Transitional Justice in Northern Ireland: A Grassroots Case Study
Leon Litvack (Queen University, Belfast, Ireland)

Toward the Development of an Ideal: Interaction Between International Criminal Justice & Human Rights Jurisprudence in the International Criminal Courts & Tribunals
Heejin Kim (Yale Law School, USA)

Why States Commit to International Criminal Justice: Weak African States and the Importance of External Recognition
Kevin Coffey (University College, Dublin, Ireland)
- 12:15-1:30 Lunch
- 1:30-2:00 Keynote: "An Introduction to the Trust Fund for Victims at the International Criminal Court"
Pieter De Baan (Trust Fund for Victims, International Criminal Court)
- 2:00-4:15 Workshop on Active Non-Violence
Isabelle Geuskens/Merle Gosewinkel (Women Peacemakers Program)

Monday, August 26 (con't)

- 4:15-4:30 Break
- 4:30-5:30 Keynote: Leymah Gbowee
(2011 Nobel Peace Prize Laureate, Gbowee Peace Foundation)

Tuesday, August 27: Oude Kerk, Delft

Daytime: Free Day - some suggestions:

- 1) A visit to the Peace Palace Visitor's Center (Free)
- 2) The M.C. Escher Museum (9 Euro)
(The Hague)
- 3) Humanity House (6.5 Euro)
(Red Cross Museum, The Hague)
- 4) Delft (Go for an early dinner and get a good seat for Pro Concordia Labor)- a quick trip on the train or tram - see us for details.

6:30pm-10:00pm:

"Pro Concordia Labor", Special ceremony in Delft, The Netherlands featuring: Brigid Inder (Women's Initiatives for Gender Justice), Leymah Gbowee (2011 Nobel Peace Prize Laureate), Stephen J. Rapp (U.S. Ambassador for Global Criminal Justice). Conference attendees are automatically registered for this event.

For more information, visit: <http://www.proconcordialabor.com>. Complimentary transport for conference attendees will be arranged.

Generously Supported by Central Michigan University's Department of Philosophy & Religion and College of Humanities & Social & Behavioral Sciences and The Planethood Foundation. With special thanks to The ICCSN Chapters of Cambridge University and Central Michigan University

